

Shirley Blevins

Shirley was born and raised in Houston, Texas, attended the Houston Community College and the University of Houston. She has a degree in Interior Design and had two businesses (Accent on Interiors and House of Corrections, a remodeling firm) before her retirement in 1998. She is married to a retired Electrical Engineer from General Electric, has two children and 6 grandchildren.

Always interested in art of all kinds, she can't remember a time when she wasn't painting something. She has studied with many art teachers including Russian born Art Master Efim Frumin and Mary Ellen Little in oils. Recent workshops with nationally known watercolorists have been with Mary Jane Cox, Betty Carr and Hilary Page.

Shirley has won numerous ribbons and awards in juried shows and has art works in businesses and private collections across the United States. When not painting she can be found fishing on Lake Conroe or playing with her grandchildren.

Commissions are accepted in watercolor, oil, pastel and mixed media. Subjects can be people or pet portraits, still life, floral, landscapes and abstracts.
